♥ February 11, 2010—John Howie Jr & The Sweethearts'

Bringing together John Howie Jr. (Two Dollar Pistols fame) and members of the Rosewood Bluff (Chapel Hill/Durham) and The Darnell Woodies (Winston-Salem), this powerhouse of a trio features John Howie Jr. on guitar and baritone vocals, the phenomenal Nathan Golub on pedal steel, and Billie Feather on upright slap bass and banjo. Enjoy true country and rockabilly influences with the Sweethearts. www.myspace.com/jhbandthesweethearts

♥ February 18, 2010—Big Celtic Fun

Tim Smith and Eileen Regan have been playing Irish and other Celtic music since they met at an Irish music jam session in Washington, D.C., in 1980. They moved to Chapel Hill in 1990 and together love to play love the music of their ancestors every chance they get. Eileen plays a mean fiddle and sings beautifully the songs and ballads of Ireland, Scotland and America. Tim plays Celtic tunes on flute, tin whistle, and English concertina and accompanies Eileen on piano. Tim has also been known to deliver a song or two including originals. Drew Pilant should also be performing. Drew is a Carrboro native and percussion whiz who will be pulling out beats from his world-beat bag of tricks. #### ♥ February 25, 2010—Gypsy Town

Gypsy Town was founded by members Michael and Earleen Burch, and since 1974, the two have been performing their unique style of Original Southern California Folk Rock. Gypsy Town is family oriented and often includes their son, Ryan Burch (percussion and vocals), daughter Amelia Shull (vocal harmonies) and son-in-law Andy Shull. Michael Burch, a Songwriter since the 1960's, carries on in the tradition of The Eagles, Jackson Browne, Graham Nash and others, with deep roots in the sounds of warm desert nights and sweet harmonies.
